

2018-2019 Wisconsin Bookworms Reading List

A Box Can Be Many Things* Written by Dana Meachen Rau and illustrated by Paige Billin-Frye

After her mother throws away a large box, a girl and her younger brother pull it out of the garbage. They pretend it is a cave, car, house and cage. And even when it lies in pieces on the ground, their imaginations lead them to even more inventive uses for the box.

Clifford the Big Red Dog, Be a Good Friendem.* Written by Norman Bridwell

Imagine having a dog bigger than a house! In Clifford the Big Red Dog, Be a Good Friendem, Emily Elizabeth has the biggest, reddest dog in the whole world. Most importantly, Clifford is a good friend who's always cheerful and ready to play and help.

Grandma Calls Me Beautiful.* Written by Barbara M. Josse and illustrated by Barbara Lavalley

Grandma Calls Me Beautiful captures the unique bond that exists between grandparent and grandchild. Set in Hawaii, the vibrant watercolor illustrations and lyrical text combine to capture the lush landscapes and unique traditions of the Hawaiian culture.

Families are Different* Written and illustrated by Nina Pellegrini

Little Nico, who is adopted from Korea, realizes that some children live with one parent, two parents or grandparents, and that some children have stepbrothers, stepsisters and parents who look very different from one another.

Is Your Mama a Llama?* Written by Deborah Guarino and illustrated by Steven Kellogg

Lloyd the llama is looking for his mama. "Is your mama a llama?" he asks a bat, a swan, a cow, a seal and a kangaroo. Young children will share Lloyd's delight when the answer to his question is finally, "Yes!" This book is filled with rhyme and riddles.

Night Animals* Written and illustrated by Gianna Marino

Night Animals is a witty story with various nocturnal animals that are afraid and hide from other night animals, until a bat explains they are all night animals. The story ends with a reassuring twist and shows there really is nothing to be afraid of in the dark.

Snow Leopards* Written by Jill Esbaum

In Snow Leopards, readers learn about rare and beautiful snowleopards: their habitat, how they've adapted for a cold climate and how they care for and teach their cubs.

Snowman's Story* Written and illustrated by Will Hillenbrand

Snowman's Story is a wordless picture book that allows children to tell their own version of the story. One wintry day, a hat lands on the head of a newly made snowman and brings him to life. Hiding inside the hat is a rabbit, who listens to the snowman read a story to some animal friends. When the snowman falls asleep, the rabbit hops away with the book. But the snowman isn't about to let his story — or the mischievous rabbit — get away. The chase is on!
