

Jones-Lee Scholarship Application - 2015
Wisconsin Association for Home
And Community Education, Inc.
$1,000 Scholarship

The Nellie Kedzie Jones and Blanche L. Lee Scholarships were established to honor two outstanding State Leaders of UW-Extension. To encourage more applicants, the two scholarships were combined in 2001 into one $1,000 scholarship.

Who is eligible? The applicant must be associated with WAHCE. All WAHCE members in good standing, their children, step-children, and their grandchildren are eligible. The scholarship is to be used for a two-year associate degree in a vocational, technical school or to continue education at the university level as a full or part-time student with a minimum of four credits.

The recipient must be a resident of Wisconsin. Applicants may apply for this scholarship more than once, but may receive the Jones-Lee Scholarship only once.

What are the requirements? The complete application must include:

1. It is preferred that all answers be typed. You may type/write your answers to the statements on the attached form, or the same information in the same order on your own paper – no longer than two pages. These forms are available on the WAHCE website at <http://www.wahceinc.org> in Word and PDF format. The Word document is a table so click on each box to type in the information.
2. A typewritten personal essay – no longer than two pages.
3. Two letters of recommendation from someone other than a relative, to be sent in sealed envelopes along with the rest of the application or mailed separately to the WAHCE Scholarship Chair, postmarked by April 1, 2015.

Letters of Recommendation should include the following information:

1. How long you have know the person and under what circumstances.
 2. How this person would benefit from this scholarship.
 3. Your opinion of this person in a few sentences – character, responsibility, conduct and follow-through on tasks, conscientiousness, potential contribution to the community, etc.
- 4. It is your responsibility to make sure this application is complete and signed. If all information is not received by the due date, it will be rejected.

How to submit this application? The completed application must be postmarked by April 1, 2015, and mailed to the WAHCE State Scholarship Chair.
