

2010 W AHCE CONFERENCE KEYNOTE SPEAKER

"Hats on, Hats Off" will be the title of keynote speaker, Peggy Leinenkugel's message.

A very popular resident of Chippewa Falls, Peggy Jane Leinenkugel is known for pouring her heart into the community. In 2007, she and her husband, Jake were honored as philanthropist of the year by the Chippewa Valley Fundraising Professionals for demonstrating outstanding leadership in philanthropy and volunteerism, and significantly impacting the lives of those living in the Chippewa Valley.

Peggy graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of Wisconsin Eau Claire with a BS in Art Education with a Physical Education minor.

In 2007 Peggy left her position as Customer Communication Director for the Jacob Leinenkugel Brewing Company to spend more time with family, Peggy loves to volunteer in her community. She says "We wear many hats in our life, but no hat is more important than the hat that is shared with others".

We are excited to have Peggy with us as our keynote speaker on Tuesday, September 14th following dinner.
